On the 20th instant, in the 61st year of her age, Miss S. M. BRONAUGH. Her funeral will take place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Brodough, at 144 Market street, Georgetown, at 10 o'clock, Tuesday, the 23d inst. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

I take this method of stating a statement made in the Gazette several weeks since. The facts of the case are: On Thursday, Oct. 17th, Mr. E. F. Plant dined with a lady and myself at the Mansion House. After dinner I handed Mr. Plant five dollars, requesting him to settle the bill. A day or two after I noticed the item in the Gazette implicating me in an attempt to defraud the hotel out of their bill. Subsequently I visited Alexandria and learned to my satisfaction that my supposed friend had paid but one dollar of said bill, pocketing the balance. On handing me the change he stated that he had paid two dollars, the full amount of the bill. The remainder has been paid by me, and I insert the above in lieu of an "explanation" (I made in last Monday's paper).

Wm. M. GALLANT.

NOVEMBER 21, B. C. 53. Marcus Licinius of the Triumvirs with Caesar and Pompey, was killed. He was surnamed "Dives," the rich, on account of his vast wealth. He once gave an entertainment to the whole people, in which ten thousand tables were set, and besides distributed corn enough to last each family three months. He perished with his great army, in an expedition against the Parthians, undertaken from motives of avarice and ambition.

Abraham Newland died; he was sixty years of age, and a native of England.

November 22, 1875. Sentence of death was announced to Mary Queen of Scots by Lord Barchinart, 1633. Leonard Calvert, brother of Lord Baltimore, embarked at Cowes, in the Isle of Wight, for America, to settle Maryland.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.—The weather, yesterday, was damp and disagreeable, and only small congregations were assembled at the several churches. Rev. Dr. Packard preached at Christ Church in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Hubbard preached there at night. Rev. Rising Sun Dana, the Indian preacher, occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church in morning and night. Rev. Mr. Wilson preached in the M. E. Church Sunday morning. Friends of the Friends' Meeting House in the afternoon. With those exceptions the pulpits of the churches were filled by the pastors of the respective churches.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday afternoon:
Jack Franklin, for abusing and beating his mother, was sent to the work house.
Stafford McGee, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.
Erasmus Freeman, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

Magie Myers, committed to jail for stealing $10 from Lewis Dudley, both colored, was released as she had served out her term.
Four lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

THE GLYMONT HOMICIDE.—In the case of Henry Washington, of Washington, charged with the murder of Charles Green, in Charles county, Md., to May last, which was tried in the Port Tobacco Court, before Judges Brent, Magruder and Ford, a verdict of "not guilty" was rendered. The deceased was found floating in a creek near Glymont, with a gunshot wound on the side of his head, and it was claimed that the altercation was commenced by Green, and the accused was acting in self-defense.

PERSONAL.—One of the happiest results of the Virginia State elections, says the Washington Capitol, was the choice by the people of Alexandria of our highly-respected friend, Capt. William H. Fowle, to represent them in the Legislature at Richmond. A gentleman of high culture, advanced ideas and the sterling integrity identified with the name of a Virginia legislator, Captain Fowle's career will prove a lasting benefit to his people and State.

CHAMPION FARM PRODUCTS.—There are now on exhibition at the Mansion House as fine specimens of corn, potatoes, turnips, and beets as were ever seen in this city. The turnips and beets came from the farm of Mr. Jesse E. Adams, in Amherst county, Va., and the corn and potatoes from the farm of Mr. Posey, in Charles county Md. One of the turnips weighs nine pounds and a half, and a beet weighs fourteen pounds.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. D. M. French, second son of Dr. D. M. French, of this city, has been appointed second assistant engineer in the United States marine service.

It is currently reported that the District Commissioners will recommend to Congress in their next annual report that the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company be prohibited from bringing their cars into the depot at Sixth and B streets, and that the building erected by that company, at the point designated be made the property of the District government.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

MR. C. ATHEY RUN OVER BY A LOCOMOTIVE.

Both Legs Crushed and Amputated.—Death of the Unfortunate Man.—Narrow Escape of a Young Lady.

A shocking and fatal accident occurred about half past 7 o'clock, last night, on the Henry street track of the V. M. Railroad. An engine of that road knocked down and backed over Mr. Caleb Athey, who was standing upon the track. Mr. Athey and Miss Walker, of Upperville, and Mr. James Johnson and the two Misses Laws, of this city, were passing down Duke street on their way to attend the evening services at the Baptist Church, and when at the junction of Henry street their attention was attracted by the approach of the Baltimore and Potomac train, which arrived at that time to make the connection with the eight o'clock Southern train of the Virginia Midland Railroad. The engine of the Baltimore and Potomac train approached the spot on the west track and Mr. Athey stepped on the switch to the east of the track along which an engine and tender of the Midland road was backing at the time. The ladies above named came avowed to call Mr. Athey's attention to the approaching engine, but he was most probably blind by the glare of the head-light on the B. & P. engine, and confused by the rattle of the bells, and did not see or hear the engine which knocked him down. The tender and engine passed over him and broke and mangled his legs, the right one above and the left below the knee. Mr. Athey was picked up immediately and carried to the west side of the track, where he sat up until the arrival of D. M. Lewis, who had been sent for to render surgical aid, and who, a hour or more, had been most ineffectual. This morning the injured limbs were both amputated above the knees by Dr. Lewis, assisted by Drs. Gibson, Powell and Stabler, but Mr. Athey, who was quite delicate, could not survive the shock and the loss of blood consequent upon the accident, and died from his injuries at 3 o'clock this evening.

Miss Walker was also knocked down by the tender but fortunately escaped unharm.

Mr. Athey was a native of Loudoun county, but had been a resident of this city for some years past, and was liked and respected by all who knew him.

RADICAL REORGANIZATION.

Rumpus in the Camp.—The New Comers vs. the Natives.

There is considerable stir in Radical circles, caused by the reported reorganization of the party in this city, in which it is asserted that the natives have been ignored, and the new comers have assumed control of the party, for the purpose of distributing the "loaves and fishes." It appears that a meeting was held one night last week in the United States court room, in the custom house building, at which there were present but few, but at which a reorganization of the party was effected by the election of the following officers: President, I. C. O'N. al; Vice Presidents, W. Willoughby and J. M. Stewart; Secretary, G. C. Thorpe; Corresponding Secretary, H. H. Service; Treasurer, F. L. VanAuken.

It is claimed that in this organization there is but one other who is native and to the manner born, and he is not an active politician or ultra Radical, and that the home element has been for a purpose entirely ignored, which has given rise to "hard feelings" and bitter denunciation.

As the meeting at which the reorganization took place was quasi secret, and only the preliminaries arranged, another and more public one is to be held this week, probably on Wednesday night, when there will be further developments.

The Ottoman Case.

The motion to quash the attachment in the case of the United States vs. W. H. Ottman, charged with robbing the United States Treasury of $47,000, to have been heard at this term of the United States Circuit Court, which began in this city to-day, has been continued, by consent, until Friday, the 4th day of January, in consequence of the unavoidable absence of some of the counsel.

WELL FILLED GAME BAGS.—Nearly all the game in the immediate neighborhood of this city has been destroyed, but farther down the river good shooting grounds may still be found. Two gentlemen returned yesterday evening from a short visit to King George's county, bringing with them upwards of one hundred partridges, besides numerous wild ducks, old hares, &c.

BANK FAILURE.—It will be seen by a special dispatch from Culpeper to the Gazette that the Bank of Culpeper failed to-day for $54,000. The assets are reported at $60,000.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather to-day has been clear and bright, and not unusually cool.

The coal depot at Four-mile run, on the A. & W. R. R., has been abandoned.

Rev. F. C. Tebb, who was in this city Friday week apparently well and hearty, died last Wednesday at Middleburg.

Persons visiting Washington on Sundays will be glad to learn that on those days a train leaves the 6th street depot for this city at twenty minutes before 8 o'clock at night.

Rumors of smallpox in Cumberland are so rife, and so many canal boats are coming here from that city, that fears of the introduction of the disease into this city are entertained, and as the station house has lately been occupied by persons from Cumberland, either as prisoners or lodgers, it was fumigated this morning.

A lady who had bought a fine turkey in market last Saturday morning and left it at Mr. Pierpoint's, her butcher, to be sent home with some other meat, was greatly surprised when, an hour or two thereafter, her cook told her that a spoiled turkey was in the kitchen.

The bad turkey had been exchanged for the good one by an unknown thief during the temporary absence of Mr. Pierpoint from his stall.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Death of the Vice President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Vice President Henry Wilson died in the Vice President's room of the Senate Chamber, at the Capitol, this morning at 7:20 o'clock, very suddenly.

At midnight he awoke, got out of bed, and walked about the room. Before going to bed again he went to a little cabinet drawer and took therefrom a collection of religious hymns and songs and read several verses. He then returned home, and looked at the pictures of his wife and son, returned these, and then retired.

At 3 a. m. he again awoke, and complained of a pain in his stomach. A watchman present rubbed him briskly awhile and he went to sleep again, after stating that he felt much relieved.

About 7 a. m. he again awoke, and said he felt much better than at any time since he was last attacked. He spoke of how kind his friends had been to him here since he has been ill, and then he took a little bitter water. Soon after this he lay down, and in two or three minutes his attendant noticed that he was breathing very heavily, and before anything could be done to relieve him, the Vice President was no more.

At 11:30 a. m. the doctors assembled in the Vice President's room to make the post-mortem examination. The head was first opened and the brain removed. At its base there were unmistakable signs of inflammation, and other parts of the brain were diseased. The body was next opened, and the heart, kidneys, and liver appeared to be in fair condition. The kidneys weighed eight ounces each. The bowels generally were in good condition. The spinal column was then exposed and examined; but, on a casual examination nothing unusual appeared.

The arrangements for the funeral will be completed this evening.

Failure of the Bank of Culpeper.
CULPEPER, C. H., N. V. 22.—The Bank of Culpeper closed its doors to-day, with liabilities amounting to fifty four thousand dollars. The assets of the bank are said to be sixty thousand dollars.

The Death of Vice-President Wilson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Everywhere throughout the city and on the shipping in the harbor flags are half masted in respect to the memory of the dead Vice-President. The Supreme Court chambers was adjourned this morning on account of Vice-President Wilson's death.

In the City and County of New York, where the funeral of the deceased is being held, the District Attorney Phelps spoke of the eminent character of the deceased, and said that under ordinary circumstances, with any ordinary trial on the court would not doubt be adjourned, but considering the circumstances of the case he thought the course of justice should not be delayed, and that the trial should proceed. In conclusion he requested that the court enter on the record minutes of its sense of loss sustained, and Judge Barrett granted the motion, eulogized the deceased, and said no doubt all who would desire would be the expression of its esteem and respect by the court, and that it would satisfy his relatives and friends.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—All the State courts except two, in which the public interest required the trials to proceed, have adjourned in respect to the late Vice-President. In the U. S. District Court, Judge Blatchford presiding, this morning, Hon. Wm. M. Evans made a motion that the court adjourn for one week as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Vice-President. After remarks from different gentlemen, Judge Blatchford ordered that the court stand adjourned until Saturday.

In Brooklyn and Jersey City all the flags are displayed at half mast.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 22.—The death of the Vice-President has created a profound sensation of sadness and regret. The city and private flags were immediately displayed at half mast, and the Mayor has ordered the bells to be tolled for one hour.

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The unexpected announcement of the Vice-President's death was regarded at first with distrust, but the early reports being confirmed, the news created an universal sense of sadness. Flags are at half mast, and some of Mr. Wilson's friends have started for the capital.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—A special meeting of the City Council was held this morning, to take action in regard to building a new bridge over the Schuylkill, at Market street. While the meeting was in progress, the death of Vice-President Wilson was announced, and resolutions appropriate to the subject were passed. Also, a resolution offering the use of Independence Hall for the reception of his body on its way to Massachusetts.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A letter to the Times from Rome states that besides the long note from the Vatican to Spain, published on the 12th, Spain had previously received a secret note from the Vatican, which has not yet been printed.

The trial of Henry and Thomas Wainwright, the one upon the charge of wilful murder, and the other as an accessory after the fact, began to-day. Chief Justice Cockburn presided.

Henry Wainwright is charged with killing a young woman named Harriet Lane, in September, 1874, in Whitechapel road, her mangled remains being found in his possession a year afterward.

Lynched.
FORT VALLEY, GA., Nov. 22.—John Brown, colored, was arrested near here yesterday evening in an attempt to rape a highly respectable young lady. He knocked out some of her teeth and filled her mouth and eyes with dirt. A band of disguised men took him from the custody of the sheriff last night and hung him.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22, 11 a. m.
For the Middle States, fallow barometer, winds shifting to northeast and southeast, and continued cold, clear or partly cloudy weather.

SMALLPOX IN CUMBERLAND.—It appears from the Cumberland papers that the smallpox is creating quite a scare in that city, and has induced a depressing effect there. The infected sections are barricaded, and the city authorities have erected a hospital for the reception of smallpox patients. Services were omitted yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church as a precautionary measure against the contagion, "always," as the notice states, "to be guarded against in large crowds."

GEN. BUTLER writes as follows to J. B. Seaver, ex-Congressman, of Fredericksburg: Boston, November 16, 1875.

MY DEAR SIR.—Never believe anything you see about me in the newspapers. I have not bought a gold mine in Virginia or elsewhere, and do not mean to.
